Ballet Wolcott's Fourth Annual Performance

Sunday, May 22, 2011 2:00 PM Dibden Center for the Performing Arts, Johnson State College

This year Ballet Wolcott has the opportunity to hold our end of the year show at Dibden Center for the Performing Arts. Since we will have the use of this wonderful space, we plan to stage a short story ballet based on the Norwegian folktale East of the Sun and West of the Moon. It is a beautiful story about a girl who bravely saves her poor family as well as her true love. This ballet would attempt to integrate most of our classes and anyone else who would like to volunteer to play a part. We are currently preparing a cast list and will be searching for folks who would like to volunteer with making scenery, costumes, etc. Please check with your dance teacher and visit www.balletwolcott.com in the fall for more information and updates on this event.
